FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNE 24, 2008

Board of Education of Harford County June 23rd meeting

HALL OF FAME – Marlin C. Dellinger, a 37-year Harford County Public School educator who retired in 2001, was inducted into the HCPS Educator Hall of Fame by the Board of Education of Harford County at its June 23rd meeting. Mr. Dellinger was a 33-year elementary school principal, serving at the now-closed Slate Ridge, Bel Air, and Fountain Green elementary schools. Superintendent Jackie Haas, left, took part in the ceremony as did Mr. Dellinger's wife, Sharon Dellinger.

TOP REFLECTIONS – Patterson Mill Middle School rising eighth grader Victoria Moore was honored by the Board of Education of Harford County at its June 23rd meeting, recognizing the 12-year-old's essay on her family's experiences in Zambia (southern Africa) last year working with needy children. Ms. Moore's essay, submitted through the PTA 'Reflections' program, won a National Award of Merit this past spring.

PRESIDENT FIDLER HONORED – Bob Thomas, representing County Executive David Craig, presented outgoing Board of Education President Thomas L. Fidler, Jr., left, with a County pin and a proclamation honoring Mr. Fidler for his five years of service on the Board and his leadership as its president during the 2007-08 school year. The presentation was made at the Board's June 23rd meeting. Mr. Fidler's five-year term on the Board was due to expire on June 30th.
